BY-LAW NO. 69.

A By-law for regulating the meetings and general conduct of the business of the Municipal Council of the Township of Maple Ridge.

WHEREAS it is expedient and necessary for the Corporation of Maple Ridge that "standing rules" for the general conduct of business at the meetings of the Council be framed:

Therefore the Municipal Council of the Township of Maple Ridge enacts as follows:—

1. That all by-laws respecting "rules of order" and procedure at Council meetings heretofore passed by the Council of the Township of Maple Ridge are hereby repealed.

2. That all meetings, other than special or adjourned, shall be held in the Town Hall on the first Saturday in each and every month at 2 o'clock p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the Council.

3. That as soon after the hour of meeting as there shall be a quorum present the Reeve (or in his absence the Councillor chosen as Chairman) shall take the chair and call the Council to order.

4. That the whole number of members at any meeting shall not be less than four, which number shall constitute a quorum.

5. The ordinary routine of business in the Council shall be as follows:—1st. Reading the minutes; 2nd. Receiving petitions; 3rd. Reading communications and petitions; 4th. Reading reports; 5th. Reading by-laws; 6th. Unfinished business; 7th. Motions and ordinary business; and that all business shall be taken up in its regular order.

6. That in the proceedings of the Council every amendment submitted shall be decided upon before the main question is put to vote, and only one amendment to an amendment shall be allowed, and any amendment more than one must be the main question.

7. Every Councillor previous to his speaking to any question or motion shall rise from his seat and address the Reeve or Chairman.

8. Should two or more Councillors rise at the same time to speak the Reeve shall determine which shall be allowed the privilege first, subject to an appeal to the Council.

9. That every Councillor who shall be present when any question is put shall vote thereon, and the names of the yeas and nays shall be entered on the minutes at the request of any Councillor.

10. No motion shall be debated, or put in Council, except it be in writing and seconded.

11. It shall be the duty of the Reeve or Chairman to state every question properly presented to the Council, and before putting it to a vote ask, "Is the Council ready for the question." Should no Councillor offer to speak he shall put it.

12. If any appeal be taken from the decision of the Reeve (on any point of order) the question shall be immediately put by him, and decided without debate, "Shall the chair be sustained?" And the Reeve or Chairman shall be governed by the vote of the Council in relation to such point of order.

13. If the Reeve refuse to act upon the point of order as decided by a majority of the Council, the Council may appoint one of their number to preside in lieu of the Reeve until the question or matter giving rise to the point of order shall have been disposed of, and the Councillor so temporarily appointed shall act accordingly, but shall have only a casting vote in case of a tie. The Reeve shall in no case vote as one of the Council.

14. That when it shall be moved and carried that the Council go into Committee of the Whole, the Reeve or Chairman shall leave the chair and appoint a Chairman, who shall report the proceedings of the Committee. The rules of the Council shall be observed, except the rule limiting the number of times of speaking and requiring motions in writing.

15. That no Councillor shall speak more than twice on the same question without liberty of the Council, except the mover of the motion or resolution, he having the liberty of replying, after which the debate shall close.

16. That when a question is under debate no motion shall be received unless: 1st. To amend; 2nd. To commit; 3rd. To lay on the table; 4th. To postpone; 5th. To adjourn.

17. That a motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except: 1st. When a Councillor is in possession of the floor; 2nd. When the yeas and nays are being called; 3rd. When the Councillors are voting; 4th. When the adjournment was the preceding motion; 5th. When it has been decided to take up the previous question. A motion to adjourn cannot be amended, but a motion to adjourn to a given time may, and is open to debate.

18. That a motion for commitment, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments of the main question.

19. That any Councillor may of right require a motion under discussion to be read for his information at any time when it is under consideration, but not so as to interrupt any other Councillor while speaking.

20. Every by-law shall bear the name of its introducer on the upper left hand corner of said by-law. Every by law shall have three readings, the recital of the title thereof shall be the first reading. All blanks shall be filled up during its second reading, either in Council or Committee, and at this stage shall be read clause by clause and at full length. The third reading shall be the recital of the by law, except that it may be required to be read by any Councillor. No by-law shall be read more than two readings at any one meeting of the Council. The date and number shall be filled in by the Clerk at its final passage.

21. Every petition, memorial, or other paper addressed to the Council must be presented by one of the Councillors, who shall be answerable that they do not contain any matter improper or impertinent. Committees, whether composed of members of the Council or other persons appointed by the Council, shall report a statement of facts and their opinion in meeting, and no report shall be received unless agreed to and signed by a majority of the whole Committee.

22. That when a motion has once been made and carried, it shall be in order for any member voting with the majority, or in case of equal division, by those who voted in the negative, to move for a reconsideration, and such motion shall take precedence of all motions excepting the motion to adjourn, and if such motion is seconded it shall be open for debate and be disposed of by the Council.

23. That in debates every Councillor shall confine himself to the question before the Council, shall avoid all personality, and immediately sit down if called to order; that no Councillor shall use unmannerly or indecent language against the proceedings of the Council or any member thereof.

24. That no by-law or part of a by-law shall be introduced, repealed, or amended unless notice be given in writing by a Councillor at least thirty days previous to such contemplated change.

25. That the Council vote by show of hands.

26. That the regular meetings of the Council shall be held openly (except special meetings, which may be with closed doors), and no person shall be excluded except for improper conduct. If any one present use disrespectful or improper language towards the Council, or any member thereof, it shall be the duty of the Reeve (with the consent of the majority of the Council) to appoint a special constable to remove such person or persons from the Council Chambers.

27. Special meetings may be called by the Reeve at such times as he may think proper, but in every case he must give notice in writing to every Councillor. Such notice to be in the form of a summons to attend the Municipal Council, specifying the business proposed to be transacted at such meeting, and signed by the Reeve or Councillors (as the case may be), and shall be left at the usual place of abode of every member of the Municipal Council twenty-four hours at least before such meeting, and no business shall be transacted at such meeting other than the business which is specified in the notice. Also notice must be posted on the Town Hall twenty-four hours clear before such meeting.

28. This by-law may be cited as the "Rules of Order By-law."

Passed its second reading this 7th day of April, 1888.
Received its third reading and reconsidered, and the seal of the Corporation hereto attached this 5th day of May, 1888.
